JULY 8 / DAY 1 TOUCH DOWN IN VENICE / HEAD IN TO THE MOUNTAINS

13:00

This trip is a west to east traverse across the Dolomites that loosely follows the quiet Alta Via 9 (AV9), taking in the most spectacular scenery in this UNESCO World

Heritage Site. The route visits the famous towns of Campitello, Arabba and Cortina. We hike through some magnificent landscapes and see mountains such as the Catinaccio. Meet at Venice Marco Polo Airport at 13:00hrs (1pm). Your Guide will meet you by the red fronted Relay shop in the Arrivals Hall. We will then transfer you by road to our hotel in Alpe di Siusi - the trip takes 3.5hrs. Alpe di Siusi is vast meadow at an altitude of 1850m and Europe's largest mountain plateau.

Rain jacket or shell.

Rain pants (these fit over your hiking pants)

Sandals or “Crocs” for wearing around camp.

Waterproof Hiking Boots

Hiking socks - 6 or 7 pairs

Underwear - at least 6 pairs

6 Shirts (I generally wear 1 outfit for a few days)

Loose fitting cotton pants (sweats)

Hiking shorts - 2-4 pair

OR

Hiking pants or convertible pants (perfect for chilly mornings that convert to shorts for very warm afternoons.)

Warm flannel

Swim shorts

Sun Hat

Bandana

Sunglasses

EQUIPMENT

25L Backpack (recommended with water reservoir)

Camera

Toiletries (the basics i.e. toothbrush/ facial products/sanitary wipes/moleskin for feet)

Sunscreen

IMPORTANT

When purchasing a pair of hiking boots remember to get them a half size bigger.

You do not want them snug.

Your feet swell when hiking and you have the extra thickness of your merino wool socks. This extra space allows your toes not to be smashed in to the front of your boot while going downhill resulting in black and blue toe and especially toenails which are very painful.
